2 YOUR CONTRACTS WITH THE UNIVERSITY

2.1 Your Contract Information

2.1.1 To help you make an informed decision about what and where to study, before you apply for a place on a Course the University will make available to you a wide range of information through a variety of means, including through the Prospectus, course leaflet, open days, written materials and the Website.

2.1.2 Your Contract Information contains any particular and specific contractual terms on which an offer is made to you. The University will make available to you the Contract Information through a variety of means as set out in clause 2.1.1.

2.1.3 By accepting a place on a Course, you are agreeing to be bound by the Contract Information; therefore, you must read the Contract Information prior to accepting your place. If you have any questions please contact the relevant person at the University as set out in clause 16.

2.2 The Pre-Enrolment Contract

2.2.1 When you accept the offer of a place on a Course, a Pre-Enrolment Contract is formed between you and the University. The terms of this Contract are determined by the Contract Information provided.

2.2.2 Your Pre-Enrolment Contract reserves you a place on your Course and gives you the opportunity to Enrol if you meet the terms of your offer, your entry requirements and any special requirements within your Contract Information.

2.2.3 You have a statutory right to cancel your Pre-Enrolment Contract. The cancellation period will expire at the end of 14 calendar days after the day you accept the offer of a place on a Course. In these circumstances, please notify the Admissions Team (admissions@winchester.ac.uk) of your decision to cancel your Pre-Enrolment Contract or use the facility available on our Website to do so. Subject to clause 2.4, the University will refund to you any monies that you have paid to the University under the Pre-Enrolment Contract within 14 calendar days after the day on which we receive your notification. (Details of cancellation rights outside of statutory periods can be found in clause 6.4)

2.2.4 Your Pre-Enrolment Contract automatically expires if and when you Enrol, in which circumstances you progress to an Enrolment Contract and clause 2.3 applies.

2.2.5 If you do not Enrol by the deadline date you have been given by the University, your Pre-Enrolment Contract will automatically expire at 23.59 on that date.

2.3 The Enrolment Contract

2.3.1 When you Enrol, an Enrolment Contract including the terms of the Contract Information is formed between you and the University.

2.3.2 Your liability to pay Tuition Fees arises at Enrolment.

2.3.3 If you Enrol remotely (please note this is distinct to Registration, which all prospective Students are required to do - please see clause 3.5 for further information), rather than face to face on University premises, you have a further statutory right to cancel your Enrolment Contract (this is in addition to the statutory right to cancel your Pre-Enrolment Contract as mentioned in clause 2.2.3). The additional cancellation period will expire at the end of 14 calendar days after the day you enrol at the University. In these circumstances, please notify the Academic Register in writing (including by email) of your decision to cancel your Enrolment Contract or use the facility available on our Website to do so. Subject to clause 2.4, the University will refund to you any monies that you have paid to the University under the Enrolment Contract within 14 calendar days after the day on which we receive your notification. (Details of cancellation rights outside of statutory periods can be found in clause 6.4).

2.3.4 Your Enrolment Contract expires in accordance with clause 2.5.

2.4 Courses that begin within or before the statutory cancellation period(s)

2.4.1 If your Course has already begun or is due to begin before the end of either statutory cancellation period referred to in clauses 2.2.3 and 2.3.3, then, by accepting the offer of the place on a Course and/or by enrolling, you are expressly agreeing that the University's service to you should begin within the statutory cancellation period.

2.4.2 In the circumstances in clause 2.4.1, if you subsequently decide to cancel the Pre-Enrolment Contract or the Enrolment Contract within either statutory cancellation period, you may be liable to pay a proportion of your Tuition Fees to cover the period from the commencement of the University's service to you until the date of cancellation (please see the Refund of Tuition Fees Deposits Policy for details).

2.5 Expiry of your Enrolment Contract

2.5.1 The Enrolment Contract will expire, subject to the provisions for early termination in these Terms and Conditions, on the completion of your Course, whether or not you are conferred with an Award.

3 ADMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY

3.1 Consideration of applicants

- 3.1.1 All applications for a place on a Course are considered on their merits in the context of the specific and general guidance set out in the Prospectus and/or Website and any special requirements as set out in clause 3.2.
- 3.1.2 The University is not obliged to provide reasons for its decisions in relation to applications, but we are happy to provide feedback to unsuccessful applicants on request.
- 3.1.3 Some prospective Students will be required to declare relevant unspent and/or spent criminal convictions, for example, where they are applying for certain Courses leading to professions or occupations that are exempt from disclosure. Full details are set out in our Disclosure and Barring Service \(DBS\) Policy for Applicants and Students found on our website.
- 3.1.3 The entry conditions stated in the Prospectus and Website may be varied from time to time where it is reasonably considered by the University to be beneficial and/or necessary to ensure the proper delivery of education, but, with the exception of a circumstance arising under clause 3.1.5, such changes would not normally affect Prospective Students.
- 3.1.4 Your entry conditions will be set out in your Offer (see also clause 3.4).
- 3.1.5 A prospective Student will be notified if the conditions of their offer change; generally, this would only be for exceptional reasons outside the University's control such as:
- a. a change in requirements imposed on the University by a professional, statutory or regulatory body; or
  - b. a change in requirements imposed on the University by a change in the law.

- 3.1.6 If the conditions of a prospective Student's offer do change, you have a number of options available. These are described in clauses 4.3 to 4.5.

3.2 Special requirements

- 3.2.1 Students for certain specified Courses and students requiring a visa to study at the University must comply with special requirements.
- 3.2.2 Some special requirements must be complied with as a condition of a prospective Student obtaining their place at the University and other special requirements continue throughout the period of the Course.
- 3.2.3 These special requirements are often imposed by law, the government, accrediting or professional bodies or other third parties including Collaborative Partners. For example:
- a. prospective Students who require a visa may need to demonstrate a particular level of competence in the English language;
  - b. some Courses may require additional declarations by the Student relating to their health, employment, criminal convictions and cautions;
  - c. there may be a requirement for a satisfactory check of criminal convictions (via the Disclosure and Barring Service);
  - d. there may be attendance requirements for Students studying on a visa or on a professional Course and certain standards of behaviour may apply; or
  - e. there may be occasions when your details are checked against professional body 'barred' lists to determine suitability for the course.
- 3.2.4 Details of any current special requirements that apply to you can be obtained from the University and will be stated in your Offer Letter.
- 3.2.5 Variations or new special requirements may be introduced by the University if they are required by a relevant third party or by law. The circumstances in which this may happen, and the options available to you if it does, are described in clauses 4.3 to 4.5.

3.2.6 Failure to comply with any such special requirements may result in termination of your Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract, with the consequence that you may not be permitted to begin your Course at the University or you may be required to leave your Course and/or the University.

3.3 Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

3.3.1 The University recognises the value of learning wherever it occurs, either to meet Course entry requirements or to achieve credit towards your Award.

3.3.2 The University's RPL Policy defines the procedures for submitting and considering requests for exemption from individual modules or direct entry to the second or subsequent year of a Course on the basis of prior learning.

3.3.3 Where an offer of a place on a Course includes RPL, grades and/or marks achieved from a course undertaken at another institution or Collaborative Partner shall not normally be transferred. The final Award mark/classification shall be calculated on credits and marks accumulated by you whilst a student of the University only. Please see the University's Recognition of Prior Learning Policy.

3.4 Conditional Offers

3.4.1 Offers of a place on a Course may be conditional on a prospective Student fulfilling certain conditions either academic or otherwise, which will be stipulated in your Offer.

3.4.2 If a prospective Student fails to meet these conditions to the reasonable satisfaction of the University, the Pre-Enrolment Contract between the prospective Student and the University shall, unless the University agrees otherwise, automatically come to an end and both parties shall be in the same position as if they had never entered into the Pre-Enrolment Contract.

3.5 Enrolment

3.5.1 Enrolment with the University is a two stage process:

- a) Registration prior to arrival at the University;
- b) formal enrolment normally during your first week.

3.5.2 You are required to register and Enrol with the University at the start of your Course and to re-Enrol as required by the University (normally annually).

4 PROVISION OF COURSES AND SERVICES

4.1 Course Dates

4.1.1 Students will be given advance notice by the University of the date on which their Course will commence (the length of notice being dependent on when within the admission cycle a Student applied for their Course).

4.1.2 Unless the Enrolment Contract is terminated earlier, it will be completed on the last day of the final Semester of the Student's Course in the Student's final Academic Year or the last day of any assessment of the Student's performance (whichever is later).

4.2 The Prospectus

4.2.1 The Prospectus is produced at the earliest possible date to provide maximum assistance to prospective applicants.

4.2.2 The University may make changes to the information within the Prospectus to bring it up to date before the start of the next Academic Year.

4.2.3 Where changes to the Prospectus constitute changes to your Course, you will be notified as soon as reasonably practicable. Where these changes relate to Contract Information you will have a number of options available to you. These are described in clauses 4.3 to 4.5.

4.3 Making changes to Contract Information provided about your Course up to 28 days before your Course starts

4.3.1 The University reserves the right to make changes to the Contract Information provided about your Course at any time up to 28 calendar days before your Course starts. We will always notify you when any changes to Contract Information are made. If you do not wish to accept the changes, there are a number of options available to you as described in clause 4.3.5.

- 4.3.2 Changes are normally made for one or more of the following reasons:
- a. To make updates to Courses to reflect best practice or new academic developments and to refresh Course curricula to ensure their currency for the benefit of Students;
  - b. To improve and enhance Students' experience of a Course, or to incorporate changes arising from Student feedback for the benefit of Students;
  - c. To meet external, professional or accrediting body requirements and/or
  - d. To safeguard academic standards, for example, in response to external examiner feedback.

4.3.3 Prospective Students will be notified in writing (normally email) as soon as reasonably practicable that the Contract Information about their Course has changed.

4.3.4 The Website will be updated as soon as reasonably practicable to reflect the changes to the Course.

4.3.5 If, as a result of a change made under this clause 4.3, you no longer want to study your Course you must notify the University in writing (or through UCAS, if applicable) by no later than three weeks after your Course starts, quoting your reason for withdrawal.

On request the University will seek to provide a suitable alternative Course at the University (for which Tuition Fees will be payable), or suggest a suitable course at an alternative educational institution.

Any Tuition Fees paid (including any deposit) will be refunded.

This clause 4.3 does not affect or alter any statutory cancellation rights you may have in relation to a Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract.

4.3.6 Where changes are made to Courses, the University will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact on Students wherever reasonably possible.

4.4 Making late changes to Contract Information provided about your Course or making changes after your Course starts

4.4.1 The University reserves the right to make changes to the Contract Information provided about your Course at any time on and after the date 28 calendar days before your Course starts when those changes are for the benefit of students as set out in clause 4.3.2; or are requirements imposed on the University by a professional, statutory or regulatory body; or where a change in requirements is imposed on the University by a change in the law.

4.4.2 Where the University makes a change under clause 4.4.1 or 4.4.5, students on that Course will be notified in writing (including email) as soon as reasonably practicable that the Contract Information about their Course has changed.

4.4.3 The Website will be updated as soon as reasonably practicable to reflect the changes to the Course.

4.4.4 If a Student does not agree that the change is fair, they are able to seek redress under the University's Complaints Policy.

4.4.5 Any late change to the Contract Information about your Course or any change made after your Course starts which falls outside the reasons in clause 4.3.2 or that does not relate to a change in the law would be considered by the University to be a variation of your Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract to which your consent was required.

4.4.6 Where changes are made after your studies have started (as outlined in clause 4.4.5), the University will contact you via your University email account (Unimail) and the student intranet (accessed when logged on with your student account).

4.4.7 In the circumstances in clause 4.4.5, you will be deemed to have consented to the change unless you give notice in writing that you do not consent by notifying the University within three weeks of being notified of, and consulted on, the change.

- 4.4.8 If you have given notice that you do not consent to a change made under clause 4.4.5, clause 4.5 applies.
- 4.4.9 Most changes to Courses will become effective from the start of the next Academic Year, but in-year changes may be made by the University for reasons beyond the University's control.
- 4.4.10 Where changes are made to Courses, the University will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact on Students wherever reasonably possible.
- 4.4.11 This clause 4.4 does not affect or alter any statutory cancellation rights you may have in relation to a Pre-Enrolment or Enrolment Contract.

4.5 What will happen if you do not consent to a late change?

- 4.5.1 Upon receiving written notice from you under clause 4.4.7, the University will arrange to discuss the matter with you formally within a reasonable period and seek to find a resolution to which both parties can agree.
- 4.5.2 If no resolution can be agreed upon within a reasonable period, you have a right to withdraw from your Course.
- 4.5.3 If in the circumstances in clause 4.5.2, you decide to withdraw from your Course:
- You must notify the University in writing, quoting your reason for withdrawal;
  - On request, the University will seek to provide a suitable alternative Course at the University (for which Tuition Fees will be payable) or suggest a suitable course at an alternative educational institution;
  - The University will refund any Tuition Fees (including any Tuition Fee deposit) already paid on a pro rata basis for the unexpired period of the Semester or Academic Year for which such Tuition Fees have been pre-paid.
- 4.5.4 Subject to clause 11, the University will consider on a case by case basis any evidence you provide of direct costs incurred or foreseeable losses suffered as a result of the change to your Course under clause 4.4.5 or your decision to withdraw.

4.6 Discontinuation or Suspension of Courses

- 4.6.1 The University reserves the right to discontinue or suspend Courses up to 28 days before your course starts for any reason. This decision is not taken lightly and would be based on factors such as:
- An insufficient number or quality of applications received means that a positive student experience cannot be guaranteed;
  - The University is concerned about the quality of the Course or the administrative and other supporting Services being delivered by its own staff or those of a Collaborative Partner;
  - Appropriate numbers of sufficiently qualified staff are not available to deliver the Course;
  - The University does not or will not have the appropriate teaching and learning resources, including the necessary estate and facilities, to deliver the Course for any reason; and/or
  - The Course is no longer viable for academic, regulatory, legal, market-related and/or financial reasons.
- 4.6.2 Where these factors are within the University's control, the University shall give Prospective Students as much notice as reasonably practicable in writing (including email).
- 4.6.3 Exceptionally, the University may discontinue or suspend Courses where:
- A commissioning, accrediting or regulatory body or employer withdraws its allocation of places, accreditation, support and/or funding for a Course; and/or
  - Events beyond the University's reasonable control prevent a Course from being delivered either temporarily or permanently (see also clause 11.2).
- 4.6.4 For changes such as these which are outside the University's control, it may not always be possible to notify Students and Prospective Students in advance, but where the University is able to give notice, it will endeavour to do so as soon as reasonably practicable.

- 4.6.5 Save for in exceptional circumstances, including but not limited to those in clause 4.6.3, the University would not normally discontinue or suspend a Course after a cohort of Students had commenced their studies, but would instead make reasonable endeavours to deliver the Course in accordance with the Course Description to all Students in that cohort.
- 4.6.6 If the University has to discontinue or suspend your Course after an offer has been accepted or at any time during your Course:
- a. On request, the University will seek to provide a suitable alternative Course at the University (for which Tuition Fees will be payable) or suggest a suitable course at an alternative educational institution;
  - b. If you will not be studying further at the University, the University will refund any Tuition Fees (including any deposit) already paid on a pro rata basis for the unexpired period of the Semester or Academic Year for which such Tuition Fees have been pre-paid; and
  - c. Subject to clause 11, the University will consider on a case by case basis any evidence you provide of direct costs incurred or foreseeable losses suffered as a result of the discontinuation or suspension of your Course, for example housing costs.

4.7 Withdrawal of Services

- 4.7.1 The University reserves the right to make variations to or withdraw Services if such actions are reasonably considered to be necessary by the University, for example, where:
- a. Events beyond the University's reasonable control prevent a Service from being delivered either temporarily or permanently (see also clause 11.2);
  - b. information technology systems require essential maintenance work, upgrades or repairs;
  - c. health and safety or other legal reasons apply; or
  - d. improvements and changes are being made to the University's estate and facilities.
- 4.7.2 The University will take reasonable steps to mitigate the impact of such variations or withdrawals on Students wherever reasonably possible, for example by substituting alternative similar Services, and giving warning of forthcoming changes or likely periods of non-availability.
- 4.7.3 The University reserves the right to make reasonable additional charges and to change charges for Services in order to cover costs or to ensure the availability of Services for the benefit of all Students (for example by fining Students who misuse library services to the detriment of other users).
- 4.7.4 The University is unable to guarantee that all Services will be available at all times to all Students but will endeavour to provide a reasonable level of provision during University teaching hours.

4.8 Module Choices

- 4.8.1 The University aims to offer flexibility of study within the relevant Regulations, Policies and Procedures but cannot guarantee that all parts of or options within Courses will be available to all Students who are qualified to take them. This is because the provision of specific modules is subject to staff specialisms, availability and continued employment.
- 4.8.2 The range of optional modules on offer may change for the reasons set out in clause 4.3.2 and/or for the reasons given for discontinuing or suspending Courses in clause 4.6.1.
- 4.8.3 Some optional modules may have minimum or maximum Student number requirements and may not run in every Academic Year.
- 4.8.4 If any modules are no longer available, the University will ensure that suitable alternatives are made available to Students to the extent necessary for Students to meet all required learning outcomes for the anticipated Award.

5 THE REGULATIONS, POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

These documents do not form part of your Enrolment Contract with the University but you would be expected to abide by them, as would the University.

5.1.5 In addition University and Student Union staff and students have worked together to develop a charter that clearly sets out what we all expect of each other. It recognises the importance of an effective partnership commitment, in which staff have professional obligations and students are responsible for themselves as learners and as individuals. The Charter is approved and reviewed annually by the Student Academic Council. Read the Charter at www.winchester.ac.uk/studentcharter.

5.2 Changes to Regulations, Policies and Procedures

5.2.1 The University reserves the right to make reasonable changes to the Regulations, Policies and Procedures where in the opinion of the University it will assist in the proper delivery of education and other services and/or it is in the interests of Students and/or is required by a relevant third party such as an accrediting or regulatory body or by law.

5.2.2 These changes will normally come into effect at the beginning of the next Academic Year.

5.2.3 The University reserves the right to introduce changes during the Academic Year when it reasonably considers it to be in the interests of Students or it is required by law or by relevant third parties.

5.2.4 Changes are usually made for one or more of the following reasons:

- a. To review and update the Regulations, Policies and Procedures to ensure they are fit for purpose;
- b. To reflect changes in the external environment, including legal or regulatory changes, changes to funding or financial arrangements or changes to government policy, requirements or guidance;
- c. To incorporate sector guidance or good practice;
- d. To incorporate feedback from Students; and/or
- e. To aid clarity or consistency of approach.

5.2.6 Where changes are made, the University will take reasonable steps to minimise disruption to Students wherever reasonably possible, for example, by giving reasonable notice of changes to Regulations, Policies and Procedures before they become effective, or by phasing in the changes, if appropriate. Students will be consulted on the changes through their representation at deliberative University committees.

5.2.7 If you have any concerns about the rationale for or effect of any change, please contact the Academic Registrar (see clause 16 for contact details).

5.2.8 The updated Regulations, Policies and Procedures shall be made available on the University's Website and on the Intranet and may be publicised by other means so that you can be aware of any changes.

6 TUITION FEES, DEPOSITS, DEBTS AND REFUNDS

6.1 Tuition Fees

6.1.1 The University charges Tuition Fees for the delivery of its Courses and you will have primary responsibility for payment.

6.1.2 The University will invoice you (or, if applicable, a third party paying on your behalf) for the Tuition Fees, to be paid on the date stipulated in the Student Tuition Fees Regulations.

6.1.3 If the third party does not make payment in full by the due date, you will be invoiced personally for any outstanding balance.

6.1.4 If payment is not made, the provisions of clause 6.5 may come into force.

6.1.5 You are contractually obliged to pay the Tuition Fees and all other mandatory Additional Costs on the dates they fall due from the moment the Enrolment Contract is formed under clause 2.3.

6.1.6 Tuition Fees are usually charged to Students in every Academic Year of their Course and you should therefore ensure that the necessary arrangements to pay your Tuition Fees have been made before enrolling for the next Academic Year.

6.2 Tuition Fee review

6.2.1 The levels of Tuition Fees are reviewed, and may be revised, on an annual basis prior to the beginning of the Academic Year in question.

6.2.2 Current levels of Tuition Fees can be found on the University's course pages on the Website.
